JOIN THE DISCUSSION ABOUT THE PROPOSED DIALYSIS RULE!

The Renal Support Network (RSN) has created this online forum to help people who have Chronic Kidney Disease (CKD), family members and health care professionals to learn about pending reimbursement changes that will take place in 2011.

This new dialysis payment system will include all drugs and services into one bundled dialysis payment. Medications administered during dialysis and lab tests will no longer be billed separately. The dialysis providers will be given a bundle payment which will be adjusted by a number of factors such as, case mix, new patient, low volume and outlier payments.

RSN encourages all healthcare professionals, public policy professionals, family members of patients to visit this forum.
