

PATIENT EDUCATION MEETING & LUNCHEON

for people who have kidney disease & their families

Hosted by
Lori Hartwell
RSN President and Founder
(kidney disease since 1968)

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2019

9:00 AM - 2:45 PM

ELKS LODGE • 120 EAST COLORADO ST.
GLENDALE, CA 91205

JOIN US!

On the agenda...

9:00 am Registration, Coffee and Visit Exhibits

9:45 am Opening Remarks, Wendy Rodgers, MPH

10:00 am Magical Moments Keynote Speaker

Michael Grasso shares his story of coming in 5th on America's Got Talent, his journey with kidney disease and performs a little magic for the audience.

10:45 am Understanding the Highs & Lows of Blood Pressure Madeline Pahl, MD is a nephrologist and will share what may be causing high or low blood pressure and will discuss treatment options.

11:30 am Lunch Served, Raffle and Exhibits

12:30 pm Eat Well and Thrive On

Jennifer Parker, RDN, CSR, LDN provides tips for tasty kidney-friendly meals everyone can enjoy.

1:30 pm Living Well with Kidney Disease Group Discussion

Lori Hartwell leads audience participation discussion on how people live well despite this illness.

2:15 pm Raffle and Evaluations

Registration Required. Please register using the form below or sign up online by September 6th, seating is limited.

Register by mail to RSN at 1146 N. Central Ave. #121 Glendale, CA 91202, by fax to (818) 484-2070 or online at RSNhope.org
You may also email a form to info@RSNhope.org

PATIENT PLUS ONE GUEST ADMITTED AT NO CHARGE Healthcare Professionals - $35 suggested donation

Please Print

Patient Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____ Phone _____ Email _____

I am currently experiencing:

Pre-Dialysis or CKD Transplant Peritoneal Dialysis In-Center Hemo Home Hemo

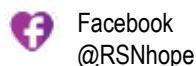

Guest Name (one per patient) _____ Clinic Name _____

How did you receive this flyer?

By Mail Social Worker Dialysis Unit RSN Website Social Media Other

For more information visit RSNhope.org, email info@RSNhope.org or call (818) 543-0896 Monday - Friday.

RSNhope.org

Follow us on social media: